Treat yourself to the majestic splendor of The Refuge Golf Club, where 350 acres of woods and wetlands have been carved into our unique layout. The splendor of the course design is evident with island type tee boxes mixed within the wetlands offering sensational views of nature and creating interesting tee-shot perspectives. Developed in 2001 by Golf Course Architect Kevin Norby, this facility creates a beautiful up-north feel while remaining close to its home in the Twin Cities region. The course has built the reputation of one of the top courses in Minnesota and earned a rating of 4 ½ stars from Golf Digest and was named “The Favorite Facility to Play” by the Twin Cities Golf Guide!
